Our mission is to provide opportunities for fellowship and exchange of information among persons sharing an interest in succulents; to encourage, promote and support all aspects of the collection, culture and study of succulent plants; and to provide opportunities for the exchange and exhibition of succulent plants.

February 2007 Newsletter

Program: Friday, February 2, 2007, 7:30 PM

Meeting Hall: MacKenzie Park, Off Los Positas at State

Co-Presidents' Message

A Memorial Fund has been sent up in Gunther Schwarz's name. There have been donations received from club members as well as other friends of Gunther. Those wishing to contribute in Gunther's memory may address their checks to Jim Foster, 375 Oak View Lane, Santa Barbara, CA, 93111.

Negotiations are continuing with the City Parks Department regarding possible first Friday of the month rental of the Davis Center for our meetings. Until further notice, please continue to come to our meetings at the MacKenzie Park Clubhouse. We value all of our members and look forward to your attendance in the coming year to our new schedule (thanks to Rob Hofberg) of informative and entertaining programs. See you there!

February 2007 Meeting Speaker:

Julie Cain

Co-Presenter:

Christy Smith

Topic:

The Arizona Garden at Stanford University

Julie is the Operations Manager at the Engineering Library at Stanford. She became involved with restoration of the Arizona Garden in 1998. She has written several articles on the history/restoration of the garden, and a book on the landscaping of the Hotel del Monte at Monterey, California. She now works in the Stanford Arizona Garden as a volunteer. Christy was also involved in the restoration of the garden.

More information about the Arizona Garden at Stanford University, including photos, is available at this link on the Internet: <http://grounds.stanford.edu/points/gardens/arizonagarden.html>

If you are not among the 46 members that have already paid their dues (thank you!), please pay your 2007 dues now. Dues are $12 for an individual, $14 for a family. Please pay Sandra Russell at the February meeting or mail your check (payable to SBCSS) to Jim Foster, 375 Oak View Lane, SB, CA 93111.
